Mind your Manners!

The Adolescent Manners Workshop is perfect for dogs of any age that need specific help on the most important skills a well-mannered dog should know. We've put together this series of workshops to either jump-start your dog's training, or reinforce the training your dog has already been introduced to. Each class we FOCUS on one main topic, as we teach a series of self-control exercises that will effectively establish your leadership skills.

ONE-DAY WORKSHOP CLASSES SCHEDULED FOR:

- Nov. 29th - Tuesday 8:30pm Walking Nicely
- Dec. 6th - Tuesday 10:00AM Peace and Quiet
- Dec. 10th – Saturday 4:30pm Walking Nicely
- Dec. 13th – Tuesday 10:00AM Polite Greetings
- Dec. 20th - Tuesday 10:00AM Give and Take

We're Positive - YOU'LL BE IN Good Hands

Class size is limited to only SIX teams

Fee: $30 each

If you register for two or more classes,

The fee would be only $25 each.

Classes are one hour. Open to dogs 6 months or older.

This is a totally positive training environment...NO prong or choke collars allowed.

Give and Take Is for dogs that take things and won't give them back – and/or for dogs that guard resources such as food, bones, toys, or even you!

Peace and Quiet: teaching a positive way to interrupt the barking at door, fences, etc., and for getting your dog to stop barking when asked!

Polite Greetings is for dogs that jump up on people when greeting – learning how to have self-control.

Walking Nicely is for training your dog to walk without pulling you down the block.

Come Now! is for training a really reliable recall – this can save your dog's life!
